Monday, May 1, 2023

1. Schedule, homework.
2. User interface:

In trying to get 2 wheels on the screen, you played around with the blue icons. I will show in class how to get the screen display back and how to select 2 wheels next to each other.

Use the magnifying lens to increase size of display.

3. The easy way to interpret continued!!!! Build the sentence with keywords that are always correct. Then try to feel it and sometimes an image can come to mind of how all of this comes together. Remember that interpretations are usually very specific.

Sun is your selfm Uranus is spontaneity Moon is your empotion,

Pluto is taking things out into the open

12:48:47 From Fei To Everyone:

Now put that in a sentence

12:51:19 From Fei To Everyone:

Internally, you always feel youthful and optimistic, Sun and Uranus conjunct opposing the Moon. It means that your Moon is hindering from being optimistic but Pluto is triggering it to come out on you so go and show how optimistic you are when you are feeling so, do not hide it. You will feel good and others around you will understand you better.
